Castlewood
Violation Appeal Process

As a resident you may request to have a violation waived based on the circumstances at your particular address. You must give details why you feel your address should be granted an appeal on this particular violation. The Board of Directors will discuss this and management will contact you regarding their decision within 30 days. Please call management at 972-317-2457 if you have any questions regarding this process.

Name

Address

Telephone Number

Violation received

Brief explanation of why this violation should be waived:

(Please include pictures of the problem area if possible)