For those attending the meetings, most said it was all of the above, a count of 12. Specific programs and networking were the top two reasons, a count of 16 each, including the “all of the above”members. Ceus, Reflexology exchanges and to be a part of the growth of the profession came in at 13 again, including the ones who checked “all of the above.”

For those not attending the meetings, the three highest count of reasons were family, illness or other obligation at 9, and too far away/location either in or out of state at 9 (quite likely as high as 11 due to some members picking “wrong day”) and working Saturdays or weekends at 9. Next on the list was politics at 5.

Most members who usually attended meetings had times when they could not attend, usually due to family, conflict or illness. A few who had not been able to attend had reasons that they would attend if they could, usually they picked all of the above.
