Judge Morgan: Thank you Mayor Davis. It is an honor to be here. I am a Superior Court Judge. I don't stay Forsyth County. I rotate to courtrooms across this big state.

My favorite duty as Judge is to lead Swearing in Ceremonies. It is much more than a public service. It is by the will of the people that we have elected officials. All power comes from the will of the people and this is a precious moment in a democracy.

It is my privilege to introduce Councilwoman Peggy Leight. Holding the family bible for Peggy is her husband Paul Bramblett. I would like to make note of the age of this special bible printed in 1607.
