Scripture of the Week

Romans 5:8-11 (KJV)

" (8) But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. (9) Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. (10) For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. (11) And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement."

"Now all I can see are the fields of your grace
Wherever I run your leading the way
You shook the shackles off my feet
I found redemption on my knees
You gave me hope and you gave me something to believe."

"Survivor" by Zach Williams

We have all been taught from a young age to "Stop, Look and Listen" before crossing a street. But when was the last time you stopped and listened to God? Stopped and heard His words through a song? Stopped and listened to someone in need?

We all get going non-stop in our busy daily lives and I think sometimes we forget the littlest things we were taught from a young age. We forget about the things that bring us joy and solice. The sound of a baby's laughter; the singing tweet of the birds; the smell of a fresh rain or that freshly done laundry; the wind in your hair; that splash of cold water, the soothing sound of waves crashing or trees rustling in the wind....you see my point.

Now, when was the last time you recall God tapping you on your shoulder; those chills/goose bumps He brings over you when you hear a song, scripture or hear about a miracle done in someone's life? When was the last time you heard Him talking to you? Have we all really gotten that busy and that out of focus that we can't even remember our last encounter with God or the things He provides to us daily? Why is it that God is always the last thing on people's minds? Why is it God is the last one we give credit to? He does more for us than just providing a roof over our heads, food on our tables, waking us up every morning; right? Then "Stop and Listen" and get back to the basics of life. Focus on those little things and then say, "Thank you, God." Give Him credit for when you hear those joyful noises, thank Him for showing favor upon you, your family and your friends. Stop and Listen to His reactions when you do and I can guarantee you will be overwhelmed with emotions like no other, because He loves when we thank Him and He misses it when we don't.

Here is something to ponder on: if you were left right now with only the last thing you thanked God for, what would you have in your possession right now? Can you even remember?

Stop and Listen, cause God has so much He wants us to experience and have. And while sometimes it may just be the little things; other times it's Him just wanting to talk.
