Yearbook Application

Thank you for your interest in joining the Yearbook class for next year. This elective offers an extraordinary opportunity to learn about desktop publishing in a dynamic and productive work environment. Selected applicants must have excellent grades and consistently high marks in cooperation and work habits. This class has rigorous assignments and students must show remarkable character and determination to get the job done. This is a serious class with serious consequences for misbehavior and underperformance. "A–E–E" marks are only awarded to students who demonstrate superior effort, responsibility, initiative and creativity. ANY STUDENT WHO MISSES A KEY DEADLINE, REPEATEDLY WASTES TIME OR MISHANDLES EQUIPMENT MAY RECEIVE A "U" IN WORK HABITS AND/OR COOPERATION. There is no daily homework in this class. However, since so many of the events that the yearbook covers happen outside of class time, students are expected to cover at least one lunchtime activity or one after-school PEP session sometime during each 5-week grading period. In addition, students who have not completed their assignments by deadline will be expected to work through lunch until the job is done.
