Looking for goodies

Members were having fun while getting a chance to win some goodies at Daffodil's recent Cancer Fund Cake Walk.

From your Worthy President

Let's keep #2308 moving forward!

Hello again Brothers and Sisters.

Well, Spring has firmly let us all know what it's like to live here in the Northwest.

We have had many things happen here at the Aerie this year and many more challenges are yet to come. I hope that the new officers will continue to receive the support of all of you and keep our Aerie moving forward. Moving is never easy, but when we finally do

$1,118 raised for Abused Children

It has been a lot of work but also fun raising money and getting grants for the Jimmy Durante Abused Children Fund. Last month during Texas Hold'em Mary and I had our final Bucket Raffle/Silent Auction to raise money for the Jimmy Durante Fund. Money goes to Mary Bridge Hospital for Abused Children.

The event was very well supported. We raised $1,118.

Thanks to Ethlyn Maley, Eric Kelm, Brad Stevens, Lynn Mueller, Tammy White, Kathy Thompson and Loni Andrews. Your help was appreciated. Mary was very sore the next day but says it was worth it.

Please step up and continue raising funds for all charities. Thanks.

— Bob Reynolds, State & Aerie Chairman

From your Madam President

Let's keep our 'Eagle Garden' growing

Last month I spoke about the Eagle Garden, tilling the soil, and clearing the garden of weeds and other things that would prevent the garden from growing and providing the sustenance needed for it to continue. I am going to complete my topic about the Eagle Garden with the nutrients needed in order for the garden to sustain itself.

All gardens need water and sunshine to grow. Plants provide both food for consumption and beauty.

Maintenance of the garden requires continual cleaning of weeds and riding the pests that harm the various plants and food in the form of various nutrients so the plants can continue to grow and be useful. Some of the most important nutrients the Eagle Garden requires includes the following: Respect, Commitment, Knowledge, Value, and Time.

• Respect is the first nutrient. This nutrient is not only shared with others, it is also to be received. The ingredients in respect gives others the sense of being needed and that results in increased esteem and value that continually helps that plant to grow and increases the usefulness to those around it.

• Commitment is the pledge to help others. Its ingredients provides the dedication and assures the surrounding plants that faithfulness and loyalty will never waver. Commitment supports all the surrounding plants; it is attentive and constant. It can provide the fidelity, admiration and enthusiasm to others when needed.

• Knowledge is one of the most powerful nutrients. Knowledge gives the plants the power to grow. The ingredients include awareness, understanding, familiarity and comprehension. It gives realization and experience resulting in the power to guide and share.

• Value. The ingredients in this nutrient includes assessing what is needed by the plants in the garden. It looks at the importance of the various plants and rates the worth of each plant and how it will benefit the whole.

• Time. This is the variable nutrient. It is sometimes slow, and at other times fast. When properly used, time can provide the measured rhythm and beat needed to inspire the other nutrients in sharing their ingredients to grow.

As your Auxiliary President this year, I did try to balance all the nutrients needed to sustain not only the Auxiliary, but to give aid to the Aerie for their survival. Sometimes I was right, and sometimes wrong, I know I did my best with what I had and was given. For all the members who saw the need to step up and help, I thank you. For those who were not able, for what ever reason, I do hope you will find it within yourself to be of service to the next officers.

move, I hope that the adjustments will come smoothly and not be too much of a shock when the time comes. We have had many fond and wonderful memories, made many new friends, and had so much great work and fellowship take place over the years. It's almost hard to believe that we can do it anywhere else.

I'm happy that at one time, many years ago, a friend thought that this Aerie would be a good fit to get me involved with our community. Without members like him taking notice of the possibilities this organization can give to an individual, we would soon disappear.

Please take time to extend your membership, or renew your dues if they need attending to because you, our members, are what keeps us around.

As my year comes to an end, I thank you all for your support and hard work, without which I don't think I could have done this. I wish all of the best for you all and for the Aerie in the future. I look forward to continuing my own membership and, if possible, to help someone find out what a good place we have, and what we can do to help them find their own personal fit.

Trustees corner

Here's more about our House Rules

In this edition of The Trustees Corner, we will continue our journey through the Aerie House rules.

House Rule #3

No firearms or weapons allowed in the Aerie home.

House Rule #9

No minor shall be permitted to possess or consume intoxicating liquor in any part of the Aerie

House Rule #11

A guest must be introduced by a local Aerie or Auxiliary member in good standing who will be responsible for the registration and conduct and purchases of and accompanied by such member at all times while the former is in the buffet, social room or any other part of the Aerie home. A guest may be deemed such without regard to their place of residence and may enjoy the privileges of the Aerie home a maximum of three times in any one calendar year. The term "guest" includes members of the immediate family of a local Aerie or Auxiliary member. The guest will be over 21 years of age.

House Rule #11.2

A non-member (guest) can be signed in three times only for the purpose of playing in the Texas Hold'em tournaments. After the third time they must have been initiated and show an official receipt or they cannot play in any more of these tournaments at Daffodil Aerie #2308.

The House Rules are put in place to ensure all members understand their responsibilities while on the Aerie premises. Any grievances, questions or clarifications of the House Rules should be directed to the Trustees, either through the suggestion box or by attending a Trustees Meeting on Wednesday evenings at 5:00 p.m.

The Trustees would like to encourage all members to attend Aerie and Auxiliary Meetings. At the member meetings you can learn and understand how the Aerie and Auxiliary function, learn about the finances and business of the Aerie and Auxiliary, and maybe win a raffle or drawing.

The Trustees would also like to thank the volunteers who are helping with the move to the new Aerie location. Your time and commitment is deeply appreciated and goes a long way in saving the Aerie money on our move.

As always, feel free to leave comments in the suggestion box. If there is a subject you would like to see written about, leave that too in the suggestion box. Come to a meeting, be a part of the process. It's your Aerie, support it!

Texas Hold'em

Kris Markum takes first in April's game

April's Texas Hold'em game came in like a lion with so much going on. 70 players made for an enjoyable game.

The winners were: First, Kris Markum; second, Rick Zimmerman; third, Mike Buhl; fourth, Tommy Mellick; fifth, Ted Staab; sixth, Cathy Williams; seventh, Ken Olsen III; eighth, Don Massey; and ninth, Jim Steffens. Great job!

I know we only had one lady at the final table and she didn't place last. Super!

Our next game will be on Sunday, May 19. Because of Mothers' Day, we made the change.

This will be my last Texas Hold'em game as Chairman. Please support the new chairman. Sean Monday has been with us for many years and will not be at our final game. Thanks Sean for your expertise on setting up the game. Having it on the screen made our game and Aerie the best place to play Texas Hold'em.

Once again thanks to our volunteers, Judy Haley, Sean Monday and to Deb Anderson for stepping in and helping as well. I hope to see you next month.
