2023 Points System

GENERAL INFORMATION

- All points are awarded to the driver, NOT the car. Relief drivers receive no points.
- If drivers are tied for a position in the points standings, that tie will be broken by a driver's best 2023 previous feature finish in that series. If they are still tied, it's the next best feature finish and so on until the tie is broken.
- Drivers disqualified in tech will receive no points for the entire night.
