

EAGLE ACADEMY FOR YOUNG MEN AT OCEAN HILL
LOCATED IN BROWNSVILLE, BROOKLYN

We are looking for committed and passionate educators to teach our scholars.

Department of Education qualifications:

- Bachelors or Masters in the subject
- Masters in Education (or currently working towards the Masters)
- New York State 7-12 Certification

Eagle qualifications:

- Willingness to plan lessons, set policy, and build relationships with a team of educators and scholars
- Willingness to provide after school small group instruction/tutoring or lead an after school club (for Per Session rate)
- Strong classroom management skills
- Passionate about teaching the subject matter
- Ability to be resilient in the face of challenges
- Interest in using classroom curriculum to help young men of color develop a strong cultural identity
- Committed to being a part of the civil rights movement through public, urban education

Learn more about what it means to be an Eagle Educator:

1. Inaugural Class's Graduation Ceremony: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jfPEM4lobdQ>
2. Brotherhood at Eagle Academy: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gqpUieWafgM>
3. Principal Meade's Thanksgiving 2014 Speech: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JzX8jX4KRuA>
4. Eagle Academy Foundation Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WohGZOKfrts>
5. What It Means to Be an Eagle Educator: https://youtu.be/xAug_2COD0

If interested, please e-mail Assistant Principal Tara Bringley at tlohr@schools.nyc.gov.