

CORRECTIONS CORPORATION OF AMERICA

APPLICANT SELF-DECLARATION OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CONVICTION

In accordance with 18 USCA § 921 and 922 (1996), "it is unlawful for any person who has been convicted in any court of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to possess a firearm." For purposes of employment with Corrections Corporation of America (CCA), an individual convicted of misdemeanor crime of domestic violence as defined below cannot carry a firearm in the course of his/her employment.

"Misdemeanor crime of domestic violence means an offense that –

- 1. is a misdemeanor under Federal or state law; and
2. has, as an element, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by a current or former spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, parent, or guardian, or by a person similarly situated or a spouse, parent or guardian of the victim.
3. A person shall not be considered to have been convicted of such an offense for purposes of this chapter, unless:
a. the person was represented by counsel in the case, or knowingly and intelligently waived the right to counsel in the case; and
b. in the case of a prosecution for an offense described herein for which a person was entitled to a jury trial in the jurisdiction in which the case was tried, either:
i. the case was tried by a jury, or
ii. the person knowingly and intelligently waived the right to have a case tried by a jury, by guilty plea or otherwise.
c. A person shall not be considered to have been convicted of such an offense for purposes of herein if the convicted has been expunged or set aside, or is an offense for which the person has been pardoned or has had civil rights restored (if the law of the applicable jurisdiction provides for the loss of civil rights under such an offense) unless the pardon, expungement or restoration of civil rights expressly provides that the person may not ship, transport, possess or receive firearms."

I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, all of the information I provide in this form is true, complete and made in good faith. I understand that false and fraudulent information provided herein may disqualify me from further consideration for employment and, if employed, may result in termination of employment if discovered at a later date.
