

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Lamont Cranston

Inducted in 1999

Lamont Cranston – Pat “Lamont” Cranston has led his legendary blues band for 30 years. Hailed as the best harmonica player around, he has also played with many top groups like Muddy Waters, Albert King, Stevie Ray Vaughan, Bonnie Raitt, The Blues Brothers and the Rolling Stones.

