

Submission: “Sharing CabRow Stories”

Do you have a fond memory of growing up in Cabarrus and/or southern Rowan County (CabRow)? A favorite place? Artifacts of times past? Please share them with KAA-MaCC!

As part of the History Collection Initiative, the Black History Series includes small history that is not included in the large history covered in textbooks. The Kannapolis African-American Museum and Cultural Center (KAA-MaCC) now introduces “Sharing CabRow Stories” that will be available on our website (www.kaa-macc.org).

Stories may be edited for length or clarity and will be posted as space permits. Not all stories will be posted. You may choose to share your story without having it considered for posting. Your story may be considered for posting by sending the following required information.

1. Your Name
2. Phone
3. Email Address
4. Tell Us Your CabRow Story (attach a document or photograph to accompany your story)

5. Choose One
  - (a) I would like my story to be considered for publication.
  - (b) I want to share my story with KAA-MaCC, but do not wish to have it published.

6. Additional Comments or Requests

7. Note: By submitting the above-mentioned information (#1-#6), you are giving KAA-MaCC, Inc. permission to use, on our website and/or in printed materials, the information and materials you are submitting. You are further certifying that you are the Owner of these materials and have the authority to grant this consent.
