United States Parents Involved in Education’s 2016 Stop Fed Ed Video Contest

Rules and Regulations

1. All entries must be a digital video. Entrants can use a phone, video camera, or any other type of video recording device.

2. Each entry must focus on how federal intrusion on education has affected their lives or the lives of those around them. All entrants must verbally direct people to “visit uspie.org and Join the Movement” at the end of the video.

3. Entrants may work together in groups or submit entries as individuals.

4. The length of video should not exceed 3 minutes.

5. The winner will receive a $100 grand prize and with possible publication in national online media outlets.

6. Entries may be submitted to afew@uspie.org starting on Monday, June 6 2016. Please include the following along with your video:

   a. First and last name
   b. Phone Number
   c. State of Residence

The deadline for submissions is 5:00PM (EST) on Friday, July 22nd, 2016. Winners will be announced no later than Monday, August 1st, 2016.

7. No copyrighted materials (music, images, etc.) may be used for this contest unless you own the copyright or have a license to use the material for this contest. Written permission must be obtained and provided upon request for all copyrighted materials.

8. Selecting the winner: The judges’ decision is final. Each entry will be judged based on the following categories:

   a. Audio and video quality
   b. Relevance
   c. Length (1-3 minutes)
d. Creativity

Each category will be scored using a 10 point scale. The entrant with the highest overall score will be declared the winner.

9. Publicity Release: By entering the contest, the entrant (and each member of such entrant) consents to the use of all information in the entry, including, without limitation, each member’s name, likeness, city of headquarters and other information, for any and all publicity or promotional purposes as USPIE may select in its discretion.

10. No Infringement: The content of the entry must not infringe any person’s or entity’s rights (including, without limitation, intellectual property rights) in any way, including without limitation, any copyrights, trademarks, logos, company names, labels, symbols, store or building facades, music, photographs, works of art, or images that have been created, distributed, aired or published in any media.

11. Entrants agree to be bound by the official contest rules and decisions of the judges.

The winner will be notified by Monday, August 1st, 2016 in accordance with the contact information provided in their respective entries. The winner will be announced on August 1st, 2016 at www.uspie.org.