Week 26 – The Fisher Pope – Catholic Answers Magazine

“The biblical miracles, in contrast, have more to them. It’s for this reason that we see the Jesus of the Bible exercising his divine power, not by killing people, but by healing and even raising them from the dead. Commenting on the three instances in which the New Testament records Jesus raising people from the dead, St. Augustine notes that “surely the Lord’s deeds are not merely deeds, but signs. And if they are signs, besides their wonderful character, they have some real significance.” In these cases, he suggests, the deeper meaning is that “every one that believes rises again.””

SSVP Bundle Up

We know that many of you have spent time de-cluttering during the virus, and we want to help you by offering you the opportunity to donate your goods to Saint Vincent de Paul. Some items are used for our Special Works (SSVP runs 12 homes for people in need), some are sent to our 2 thrift stores, and some are sold to other charities (last year this generated $100,000 in revenue for the charity).

There will be a truck in the parking lot all day from July 2 - 5. Please drop off your items inside the truck (it will be open). The focus is on clothing, towels, linens, shoes. No large items, books, video tapes or furniture please. Pass the word around to your friends!
