

Speak Simply

Text by Julie Dahl
Music by Katherine Wright

♩ = 74

mp

1. She is my friend, my sis-ter too, 'Tho I have
2. He sat there bro - ken by the world, his clothes in

♩ = 74

mp

5

ne - ver told her so. I long to share the gos-pel's peace, the bless-ings tat - ters, bad - ly stained. I turned my head and walked a - way. These gen - tle

9

mf

I have come to know. But now we talk of dai-ly things words un - bid - den came: "E - ven as you do to him, — You've

mf

13

tri - vi - al and world - ly taught.
done to me, "the Sav - ior said. How can I share the pre - cious
"He is your bro - ther and my 16

truths _____ that make me whole and heal my heart? Speak. Speak friend; _____ Won't you teach him, give him bread?" rit. . . . A tempo mp sim - ply. A sim - ple truth will do. "God lives." "He loves you." "You're

20

25 mf

good e-nough." "He'll speak to you." Pray the Lord will lead you to the souls who

29 rit. A tempo

seek e-ter - nal truth. Hear the Spi-rit's voice, then speak.

rit. A tempo

34 mf

speaks. In my life, there are a hun-dred

dim. dim. mf

38 rit.

souls that I might reach. Through sim-ple con-ver-sa-tion I can tes - ti - fy and teach. And as I

41 A tempo

strive to live in right-eous-ness, and for-give with kind-ness, ev - ery day I can show the way if I just speak. Speak sim - ply. A sim - ple word will do. "God lives." "He loves you." "You're good enough." "He'll speak to you." Pray the

A tempo

44 f

49

mf

53

Lord will lead you to the souls who seek e - ter - nal truth.

57

Hear the Spi - rit's voice, then speak.

rit.

dim. mp