Venue: CHESTERFIELD

Lecture Theatre, Chesterfield Central Library, New Beetwell Street, Chesterfield, Derbyshire, S40 1QN
Telephone: (01629) 533400

Road

From M1, turn off at J29 then take the A617 to Chesterfield. Continue on the A617 through 2 roundabouts then at the 3rd roundabout take the 2nd exit onto Lordsmill Street (B6543), then next left onto Beetwell Street. Follow road into New Beetwell Street where there is a multi-storey car park.

Bus / Train

The Library is directly opposite the main Bus Station (buses from Nottingham and Derby stop a few yards away), and approximately 10 minutes' walk from Chesterfield Train Station.

Venue: NOTTINGHAM

The Nottingham Mechanics
3 North Sherwood Street,
Nottingham, NG1 4EZ
Telephone: 0115 941 7353

Road

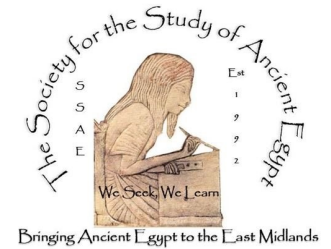

As parking can be difficult in the City Centre (especially on Saturdays), we do recommend that visitors arriving by car should use one of Nottingham's excellent Park & Ride facilities; Phoenix Park or The Forest Park & Ride sites are the most convenient from the M1 motorway, being a short tram ride to the 'Royal Centre' or 'Nottingham Trent University' stops. Otherwise, car parking is available in the Victoria Centre, Trinity Square or Royal Centre.

Bus

Victoria Centre Bus Station is 5 minutes' walk away, whilst the nearest NET Tram stops ('Royal Centre' and 'Nottingham Trent University') are both about 3-4 minutes' walk.

Train

If arriving by train at Nottingham Station, it is a 15 minute walk through the City Centre or a short tram ride from the Station Street terminus. Again, tram passengers should alight at either 'Royal Centre' or 'Nottingham Trent University'.

The Society for the Study of Ancient Egypt aims to promote interest in Egyptology and the history of the ancient Nile Valley civilizations. The Society was formed in 1992, primarily for people living in the South Yorkshire, Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire areas. Society activities and facilities include:

- illustrated lectures from renowned Egyptologists held six times a year;
- trips in the UK and abroad;
- social and fund raising events;
- a newsletter is sent out before each lecture meeting providing news on Egyptology and on Society events;
- FREE access to our Members' Library of recorded lecture meetings
