Piedmont Fine Properties Rental Guidelines

Below is a synopsis of our guidelines for approving/declining a rental application.

Income:

- Only the incomes of two applicants may be considered. In the event there are more than two applicants, the lowest two incomes will be counted.
- The incomes of the applicant(s) for the property should meet our income guidelines. Co-signors may be considered to help qualify an applicant.
- Income must be verifiable to be considered.
- Self-employed/commissioned applicants should submit copies of Schedule C or tax returns for the past two years.
- Applicants paid hourly should submit copies of their W-2s for the past two years.
- Applicant's monthly income should equal/exceed 3.5 times the rent (3.25 for military personnel).

Assets and Liabilities:

- Monthly income times .45 should be greater than monthly rent plus all long term debts.
- Applicants should have sufficient cash in bank to pay deposit, first month's rent, moving expenses and a reserve for emergencies.

Credit:

- A credit report may be run on all applicants and all adults may be considered as applicants.
- Lack of credit history is a valid reason for not approving an application.
- 3 or more late payments (30 days late) within the past 36 months may not be accepted. An applicant with any 60+ day late in the past 36 months may be turned down.
- Applicants with liens, judgments, collections or bankruptcies within the past 5 years may not be accepted. If applicant has declared bankruptcy more than 5 years ago, ALL credit established after bankruptcy should be good (no late payments). If there has been a lien, collection or judgment more than 5 years ago, the debt should be paid in full in order to consider the application.

Job History:

- Applicant needs to have maintained stable employment for the past 3 years and there should be some assurance of continued employment. If employment cannot be verified, applicant may be turned down.

Landlord References:

- Applicant should have a good reference from current and former landlord. This includes, paying rent on time, leaving property in good condition, giving adequate notice of moving, etc.
- Not having a current or previous landlord or being unable to contact current or previous landlord may cause the application to be turned down.

Other:

- All adults on the application may have their credit checked and if approved will be put on the lease.
- Applicant should meet all other requirements of the landlord or agent, including, but not limited to, pet restrictions, smoking restrictions, possession restrictions, etc. Making an application contingent upon repairs/redecoration that an owner is not willing to do may cause the application to be turned down.
- Multiple applications are processed simultaneously and the most qualified (if any) accepted.
- Processing may begin AFTER receipt of funds.
- Processing time is typically 2-3 business days.
