

Let's Have a Parade!

The July luncheon is the perfect time to enjoy the age-old summertime tradition of parades. Put on your posh hat and join in as we strut our stuff in parade fashion. Bring out your favorite hats or fascinators. Wear a crazy, colorful, elegant, sunshade-worthy, unique, or whimsical head piece--whatever suits your fancy. Plan to participate for a prize in the hat contest or sit back, laugh, and ooh and aah. This luncheon should prove to be one of the most fun times you will have this summer.

Please get your reservation in by July 14. Call Paula Ritchie (A to K) or
Mary Ward (L to Z).

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings, Ladies!

Our June Board meeting was our "Crossover meeting" with both our outgoing and incoming members present. I'm excited about all the ideas presented! It looks like we will have many interesting activities, all within a budget that supports keeping our prices at our current level.

Sheri Dyer has been busy exploring lots of fun events for Inside the Arts. Please read her column to find out more about the two activities planned for September.

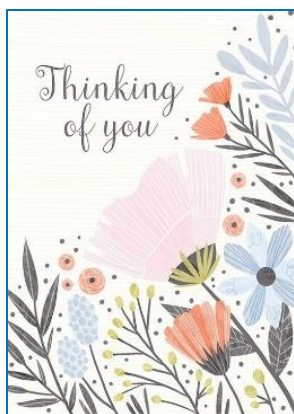

Our July Board meeting will be focused on our goals for this entire year, and we welcome your input on luncheon ideas as well as other activities.

One of the things we would like to initiate this year is a shadowing program for people who may be interested in filling some of our future Board positions. If you think you might like to shadow a current Board member to learn more about their position, please contact the Board member or me.

Meanwhile, I hope to see you all at our upcoming "Hat" (July) and "Bingo" (August) meetings!

Sue

HOOKED ON BOOKS

Carol Smith 407-618-3478

You never know what you will learn at Hooked on Books, like the secret number of grapes it takes to make a bottle of wine: eight hundred. That explains the title of our June book, Eight Hundred Grapes by New York Times bestselling author Laura Dave. Set in the Sonoma valley, the plot of the story centered on the family drama caused when secrets were uncovered one by one. While the book was somewhat predictable, the group discussion was entertaining. The newest member of our group, Barb Tuson, added to our experience by giving each of us an assortment of Sonoma Wine iced tea bags. The Chardonnay, Rosé and Cabernet teas are made with wine grape skins in place of tea leaves and infused with fruit flavors such as pineapple and peach.

Hooked on Books Book Club is a delightful place to make friends and have intriguing book discussions over a cup of coffee and a donut. Join us in July when we will be discussing The Midnight Library by Matt Haig. Call Carol Smith if you have questions. See page 4 for more details.

COOKING CLUB

Vicki Nidzgorski 813-395-3611

Unfortunately, due to Covid, our June Cooking Club had to be canceled. For July, we will have a "Do Over" or maybe in this case, an "I Do" over. On July 14, Cooking Club will meet at the home of Helen Hoppmann, where we will "do over" our June theme "Wedding Blues/Bliss." Based on the rhyme "Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue," participants will be assigned either "old, new, borrowed or blue" from which they are to find a recipe to prepare for our meeting. Ladies who have already submitted their recipes can prepare those dishes and new participants can contact Vicki to learn your assigned category. If you enjoy trying new recipes, good conversation and laughter, please consider joining us.

To participate in July, contact Vicki by text/email/phone with TWO recipes that you have not made before, which you are willing to prepare for our theme. Vicki will let you know which recipe has been chosen for you to prepare. Ensure your participation by emailing or texting the recipe to Vicki by Thursday, July 7. Come to Cooking Club on July 14 with your prepared dish, a serving utensil if needed, and your printed recipe PDF that will be emailed to you. Plan to enjoy taste testing our "Wedding Blues/Bliss" recipes. Participants limited to 12.
