

YOUNG ARTISTS COMPETITION

2021-2022 Competition

Submission Deadline: received or postmarked by January 28, 2022

PLEASE RETURN THIS COMPLETED APPLICATION FORM AND $40 APPLICATION FEE TO:

Friends of NSSO
Attn: Young Artists Competition
PO Box 419
Greenvale, NY 11548-0419

PLEASE PRINT

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ ZIP _____

Telephone (_____) _____ (Mobile / Home) (circle one)

E-mail address _____

Age _____ Date of Birth ____/____/____

Current School _____

Current Grade _____

Your instrument: _____ Years studied _____

Current private teacher _____

(email – phone)

High School Music teacher _____

(email – phone)

Title of concerto _____

Composer _____

If selected as winner I agree to be available to perform the concerto with which I entered in the Young Artists Award Competition, with the NSSO in concert on the evening of May 21, 2022 at Adelphi University Performing Arts Center, Garden City, New York.

I understand all NSSO concerts, program and repertoire are subject to change, and in the event NSSO has to postpone or alter the program of the May 21, 2022 concert, NSSO will make every effort to reschedule the winner's performance with NSSO.

Signature of parent or guardian _____

Date _____

YOUNG ARTISTS COMPETITION

2021-2022 Competition

ELIGIBILITY

- Auditions are restricted to musicians graduating classes of 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025 residing in either Nassau or Suffolk Counties on Long Island
- Eligibility is limited to legal residents of the United States
- Applicants must play one of the following instruments
 - Winds: Flute, Oboe, English Horn, Clarinet, OR Bassoon
 - Brass: Horn, Trumpet, Trombone, OR Tuba
 - Strings: Violin, Viola, Cello, OR Double Bass
 - Other: Harp OR Piano

AUDITION REGULATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

- An application fee of $40 is required of all applicants. Checks should be made out to: "The Friends of NSSO"
- Applications with fee included must be received by NSSO, c/o Friends of the North Shore Symphony Orchestra, P.O. Box 419, Greenvale, NY 11548-0419, no later than January 28, 2022. Entrants will receive written confirmation of the receipt of their application
- The applicant's current teacher must sign the application
- The applicant's parent or guardian must sign the application
- First round auditions will be by unedited video using a single position camera and live accompanist, commencing with a clear, spoken introduction giving the name of the performer and the repertoire about to be performed.
- Video submissions are due no later than January 28, 2022. You may provide links to uploaded videos for streaming through a video sharing site (ie YouTube, Vimeo, etc) or send videos through a file sharing service (ie Dropbox, Hightail, GoogleDrive, etc)
- Applicants are required to perform a concerto movement for solo instrument and orchestra in its entirety. Performing from memory is not required. All concertos must meet with the approval of NSSO's Music Director and the Friends of NSSO. Email lastrait@verizon.net with repertoire eligibility questions.
- Those chosen as finalists will be alerted by February 20, 2022 and will be required to perform their concerto selection in the finalist's recital on Saturday, March 5, 2022 at Adelphi University. Please note that the final round is open to the public and that you are welcome to invite audience members to attend.
- Applicants must bring their own accompanist for the finalist's recital.
- If selected as winner, the applicant agrees to perform the concerto movement with which they auditioned with NSSO in Concert on May 21, 2022.
- All NSSO concerts, programs, and repertoire are subject to change. In the event NSSO has to postpone or alter the program of the May 2022 concert, NSSO will make every effort to reschedule the winner's performance with NSSO.

The North Shore Symphony Orchestra reserves the right to review the credentials of all applicants and limit the number of contestants.

I have read and understand the NSSO YAC rules, regulations, and requirements

Signature of Participant's Parent

Date
