

Your Activist Starter Kit for 2018

Friend -- The Missouri Legislature is back in session, which means that today we're reigniting our fight for better policies for working families.

While we don't know specifics on the disastrous legislation Republicans will be putting forward this year, we've identified some ways that you can start this session off the right way:

Call your legislators and tell them to make healthcare a priority.

While Republicans have just been slashing services for Missourians, we're putting forward bold new solutions, like our Healthy Missouri plan. Democrats will be spending this year filing bills to expand access to healthcare -- tell your Republican legislator to do the same.

Sign up for the Show Me Truth Team to help fight fake news.

It's our job to keep Republicans honest -- and to hold them accountable when they aren't. Join other digital Democrats and spread the word on social media when Republicans try to lie.

Support special election candidates.

The only way we'll change Jefferson City is if we break the Republican stronghold over our state. We've been working hard to recruit Democrats in every corner of Missouri to run for office -- and we already have several candidates who will be running tough races next month.

These are only a few of the ways that we're getting ready to stand up to the Republican establishment in 2018 -- thanks for fighting alongside us.
