The room can also be used for concerts, comedy shows, tradeshow, conferences, holiday staff parties, weddings, seminars, or other events. The facility can accommodate up to 420 individuals depending on the set-up style. Painted Hand Casino offers meticulously prepared food by their Red Seal First Nations Chefs.

National Doukhobour Heritage Village and Museum

Verigin SK – a pleasant 45 minute drive from Yorkton

306.542.4441

In 1982 the province of Saskatchewan declared the Doukhobour Prayer Home a Provincial Heritage Building. The Verigin Doukhobour Prayer Home is a landmark of the area, with architecture that can be traced to the mid-1800's in Russia. The home was built in 1917 and is currently part of the National Doukhobour Heritage Village. Many buildings make up this unique village. Visitors can view a "peche" (brick oven), a "banya" (bathhouse) and several household articles and utensils that can be found in the homes. The Museum and Administration Building holds Doukhobour artefact's, ranging from photos and handicrafts to clothing and hand tools. Barns, a blacksmith shop and a collection of agricultural equipment complete this Heritage Village. It is truly one of a kind and well worth the drive!
