WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES SEPTEMBER 26TH

A World Day of Migrants and Refugees is observed in many places in solidarity with the World Refugee Day promoted by the United Nations and observed since 2001 on 20 June. The January observance was instituted by Saint Pius X in 1914. At the request of several conferences of Bishops, Pope Francis moved the observance to September in 2019. "The Phenomenon of migration today is a providential opportunity for the proclamation of the Gospel in the contemporary world. Men and Women from various regions of the earth who have not yet encountered Jesus Christ or know him only partially, ask to be received in countries with an ancient Christian Tradition. It is necessary to find adequate ways for them to meet and to become acquainted with Jesus Christ and to experience the invaluable gift of salvation." (Pope Benedict XVI, 2021)

New regulations regarding catechism gatherings

Due to concern around the rising numbers of COVID 19 cases in NB, new regulations have been announced by the government of NB. As per directives issued by the Honorable Dorothy Shephard, Minister of Health, the following guidelines have been determined by Archbishop Valéry Vienneau pertaining to the catechism of children:

All people 12 years of age and older will need to provide proof of vaccination to participate in in-person catechetical gatherings. If those presenting themselves are unknown to the catechist/ coordinator, government issued identification will also be required. This applies to catechists, parents and all adults who may be present at sessions. During in-person gatherings, masks must always be worn, although catechists may remove their masks for direct teaching, while maintaining a physical distance of 6 feet (2 metres) from the families. Those unvaccinated will be welcomed to participate in virtual catechetical sessions, via Zoom. The Zoom schedule and registration details are available from parish catechetical coordinators.

It has been a difficult 18 months for everyone as we navigate the pandemic. The situation continues to be fluid with frequent changes, which are frustrating for us all. However, the health and safety of families is of paramount importance. Therefore, as responsible citizens and Christians, it is imperative we follow the directions of public health officials. We thank everyone for their patience as we work to keep one another safe. Through all we are living, and how we are living it, please remember Jesus' words: "I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew, 28:20)

Exploring our Faith

Soul and Spirit...but, mostly Soul

For most of my life I used the terms “soul” and “spirit” interchangeably as if they meant the same thing. I have since learned there is a difference. Our souls refer to the depth dimension of ourselves, a reality that can only be accessed by some kind of descent (going down). In your soul, you are absolutely unique, a one-of-a-kind creation never to be replicated. If you listen to your soul, you will discover God’s plan for your life, a plan that nobody else is entrusted with in the same way. However, when you think of spirit, think of ascent (going up). In your spirit you share in a mystery that permeates everything in the universe and yet transcend it all. Soul embraces and calls us toward what is most unique in us. Spirit encompasses and draws us toward what is most universal and shared.

Soul is what is most wild and natural within us. It is the essence of you, me, the trees, water, calves, insects, volcanoes, butterflies, hurricanes, and corn stalks. In that sense, soul is more aligned with nature, because nature itself is always wild and we dare not tame it without doing damage to our own souls. Deplete forests and you run the risk of depleting your soul; they are that interconnected.

This descent into our souls is always a painful descent especially for the unprepared person who always wants to get out of that hellhole as soon as possible. It feels too much like surrender or, even worse, dying. Avoiding the descent, abandoning the journey, means a wasted opportunity to dialogue with our souls.

You can count on wild nature to reflect your soul because soul is your most wild and natural dimension. I bet everyone reading this has had a least one profound encounter with their soul in nature. It seemed to have been true for the founders of the major religions: Moses on Mount Sinai, Jesus in the desert for forty days, Muhammed in a cave outside Mecca and Buddha under the bodhi tree.

The Medieval mystics remind us that the body is in the soul, not the soul in the body. Our bodies are instruments of our souls; they go where our souls ask them to go. They dance when our souls feel like dancing; they mourn when our souls feel like grieving; they skip when our souls feel uplifted.

Your soul wants to be embodied in the world. This is what stirs you much more than career advancement, buying a new car or a new house or an ideal vacation. The essential life energy of your soul is fiery and longs for expression. If we don’t move with it, it may turn inward and manifest depression, anger, lethargy or other psychological or physical symptoms. Our souls are never satisfied with mere thoughts and prayers.

Ancient cultures always knew about the journey of the soul as a downward pull. Mythologies are full of stories of the hero’s and heroine’s descent to the underworld. If one never made the journey, one would never know their truest and deepest self, nor their purpose in life. The language of the soul bypasses words, ideas, and concepts. Instead, it expresses itself through images, poetry, metaphors, imagination, and dreams. When you can’t stop looking into the eyes of a newborn or can’t get the lyrics of a song out of your head, it is your soul wanting to express itself.

The great poet Henry David Thoreau feared people would lose touch with their souls, their relationship with nature, by the sheer speed and inattentiveness by which we move. (He discouraged people from riding trains as they went upwards of 30 miles/hour!). As a poet, Thoreau accessed his soul regularly, so go for a walk. Ponder a tree. Trees do it best for me. Why? Perhaps it’s because they make me think of Jesus. He was not afraid to do his own soul work by descending into death, death upon a tree. I think of the roots descending into the earth (soul), so that its branches can ascend to the heavens (spirit). Nature never lies...nor does Jesus.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, September 30th, provides an opportunity for Canadians to recognize and commemorate the tragic history and ongoing legacy of residential schools, and to honour their survivors, their families and communities. It is an important step in the reconciliation process.

We must listen attentively since reconciliation is impossible if we fail to understand our common history. As a Church let us express our sorrow and our solidarity. May we reflect and pray for true healing in face of this tragedy.

Pope Francis, in his 6 June 2021 Angelus message, emphasized the importance of...walking side by side in dialogue and in mutual respect in the recognition of the rights and cultural values of all the sons and daughters of Canada.

The delegation to the Holy See represents an important step on the journey of reconciliation and shared healing for Indigenous Peoples and the Church in Canada. It is our hope that these forthcoming encounters – and the important collaboration and partnership that has supported the planning – will lead to a shared future of peace and harmony between Indigenous Peoples and the Catholic Church in Canada (CCCB Statement – Delegation to the Holy See, June 10, 2021). Let Us Love One Another: A Three-Part Journey of Reconciliation

The recent, and continuing, uncovering of the horrific treatment of some of our Indigenous brothers and sisters at Residential Schools has left many of us struggling to deal with all the emotions that this has evoked. Feelings of anger, disillusion, and uncertainty as to how to move forward as a church are among many things we are trying to sort out. With this in mind, we are offering three evenings of prayer and discernment where people can come together and come to God to find a path forward. The three themes of these gatherings will be Reconciliation, Healing, and Remembrance and Promise, and the dates are as follows:

Wednesday, September 29th / Wednesday, October 20th / Wednesday, November 24th. These will take place at Holy Family Church in Moncton and will begin at 7:00pm each night. All are welcome. Please note that we are not here to speak on anyone's behalf, but rather, to acknowledge that something went terribly wrong; to discern our part in it, and to voice our public concern in prayer.

A Special Journey Is your spiritual life in need of renewal? Are you ready to embark on a spiritual journey? Look no further: we have the perfect experience for you! You are cordially invited to attend a 7 week journey beginning September 27th. Where? Holy Family Church 52 Falkland Drive, Moncton from 7:00pm -9:00pm. This is a life changing experience that will increase your faith, bring joy to your heart, and fill you with a new understanding of the Holy Spirit and His role in your life. This experience is enhanced with music, praise, scripture, and friendship. Do plan on embarking on this faith filling journey with us. POSTPONED

FROM: Mgr Valery Vienneau

September 17, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ :

The province's Minister of Health, Ms. Shephard, met with religious leaders in the province following the announcement of new measures regarding the pandemic. While explaining what the new guidelines were, she indicated that they had only one goal: to increase the rate of people fully vaccinated in the province (two doses).

Vaccination remains the best way to counter the spread of the Delta virus and protect the population (especially the unvaccinated). The government is looking for a vaccination rate of around 90%. The minister made it clear to us that she does not require masks, sanitizing, or social distancing at our gatherings. These measures are always at the discretion of individuals.

Instead, her wish is to have gatherings of fully vaccinated people to keep people safe and to act as an incentive for the unvaccinated. That is why going back to past health measures (mask, sanitizing, and social distancing) as a way to include unvaccinated people at our gatherings is not the measure promoted by the government.

Therefore, beginning Wednesday September 22nd, at any gathering inside our churches, rectories or community centres under our supervision, those present will have to be doubly vaccinated.

By gatherings we mean: religious celebrations (Sunday and weekly masses, prayer meetings, baptisms, weddings and funerals, Confirmation, First Reconciliation, First Communion), parish and pastoral meetings, catechesis meetings, management meetings, conferences, workshops, fraternal and social meetings, bingos, card games, etc.

By those present we mean: priests, lay ministers, members of choirs, volunteers, the Faithful and other participants. This also applies to family members or close friends at baptisms, weddings, or funerals. Young people under the age of 12 are naturally exempted by this measure, as they cannot currently be vaccinated.

Can we still accept a person who is not vaccinated or has a single dose inside our facilities for a celebration or a meeting? Even with a mask and social distancing? The minister said "no" unless she had proof of exemption, which is rare.

We ask you to implement these new measures in each of your Christian communities not only to respect the government's request but above all to help stop the spread of the virus among our population. We would not want one of our places of worship to be the location of a COVID exposure due to our negligence. The Minister of Health is counting on our cooperation.

We will implement the following measures for all church related gatherings including Mass:

1. Volunteers will be at the church entrance to compile a list of proof of vaccinations. You will have to provide your vaccine document and I.D.
2. A master list of proof of vaccinations will be kept at the church so that people will not have to provide it each time they attend Mass.
3. For those who are exempt from vaccination, proper proof of exemption must be provided.
