

Chamber Music Concert

Sunday, May 7, 2017 at 3:00 p.m.

Good Shepherd Concert Series Presents

SPRING LOVE

Join us for a seasonal concert exploring the perennial issues of attraction, anticipation, romantic tumult, ardent desire (both requited and rejected), inner emotional conflict and ultimate resolution. The human condition displayed through voice, violin and piano.

Admission is by donation.
Light reception following the concert.

ARTISTS

Sight & Sound:

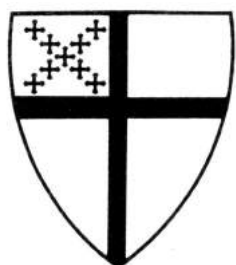

Hazel Keelan, Violin & Justin Schrum, Piano
with Soprano Miriam Blatt

WORKS TO BE PERFORMED

Cesar Franck sonata for violin and piano (1886)
Beethoven Spring sonata for violin and piano (1801)
Songs by Camille Saint-Saens and Amy Beach
for soprano, violin and piano
Songs by Franz Schubert and Georges Bizet
for soprano and piano

 An intermission will be included.*

The concert will be held in the Parish Hall of the church, located at 1300 Fifth Avenue, Belmont, CA 94002. For more information, please contact the church at admin@goodshepherdbelmont.org or (650) 593-4844. Good Shepherd Concert Series is a mission of Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, Belmont. Each Fall and Spring, the series features three Sunday afternoon concerts with local and international performers. Artists are welcome to contact the church to inquire about participating in our concert series.

Good Shepherd Episcopal Church
1300 Fifth Avenue, Belmont, CA 94002
www.GoodShepherdBelmont.org
(650) 593-4844

