What Is A Petition?

The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution guarantees to the people the right to petition the government for the redress of grievances. Petitions are also used to collect signatures to enable a candidate to get on a ballot or put an issue before the electorate. Petitions can serve as a way of pressuring elected officials to adhere to the position expressed by the petitioners.

The Grievance

The Trump administration's budget proposal contains a provision to eliminate Individual Unemployability \(IU\) benefits for all seriously service-connected veterans aged 65 and older.

It is the responsibility of millions of veterans, and millions of veterans' supporters to bring to the attention to all government officials the need to revisit the proposal to eliminate the IU benefit.

What You Can Do Today

Please visit We The People: Your Voice In The White House to sign this very important petition that is meaningful to many veterans. The petition is a compilation of signatures needed to bring awareness to the issue of Individual Unemployability \(IU\) Compensation. President Trump and his administration are making plans to do away with IU. The negative impact of eliminating IU would hamper thousands of veterans and their families. If you believe that the IU benefit should remain in place, click on the link below to sign the petition. Also, make sure and send petition link to all of your friends and family members.

Thanking you in advance for your support.
