Presidents Message:

Hello Quilting Friends

I guess summer is almost over so it's time to get busy on our quilting projects. This month we have the President's Coastal Challenge. Please bring in any Quilt related item that has a coastal theme, beach, palm trees, sea turtles etc. All those attending will be voting on best Applique, Pieced, Hand or Machine Quilting, plus Viewer's Choice and Best Workmanship. Everyone will have the opportunity to write notes for anything you specifically like about each item. The Winners will be able to choose a prize from Karen's Treasure Box.

Please bring in any UFO's that you have given up on. These will be put on a special donation table so others can finish them. When you take from the table, please give a donation to help fund the Guild. REMEMBER The UFO Completion Challenge is due in February. Sometimes we get tired of working on a beautiful item, so, this is a good Challenge to encourage you to complete a project or maybe, someone else's project.

Rita Lundy, our Refreshment Chairwoman, is recovering from shoulder surgery. Eileen Kidd has graciously stepped up to fill in while Rita is out. She needs more assistance before the meetings for set-up. If anyone could help, please give me or Eileen a call.

Remember SCQ's meet every Tuesday and Wednesday morning at St. Gabes Church to quilt, sew, laugh, solve problems etc. Please join us.

See you September 21, Happy Quilting

Joyce

There is a sheet for Cracker Christmas sign up members needed for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Cracker Christmas is the first weekend in December. September General Meeting we have the Coastal Quilt challenge. October speaker is Fran and will be discussing quilt care. November class will be a wonky Christmas tree table runner taught by Robin. December, we have our Christmas Luncheon.

Joyce President: Coastal theme challenge will be judged on 6 categories. UFO donation table will also be at the September Guild Meeting in preparation for our UFO party in February 2023. We will have lots of fun and we will have a UFO Completion Queen.

Janet Treasurer: accounts in good order. Tip Walmart has the cheapest and best quality batting currently.

Joyce: Guild member discount is 10% of quilts over $50. Quilters, please share your donation items during show and tell so you get the credit you deserve. Imposed 5 ticket maximum for fat quarter of the month no matter how many fat quarters are turned in.

Laura: Tina Grimsley will be taking over the newsletter for the guild.

Katie Secretary: Thank you card reading and information for Christmas Luncheon

Nita membership update: new member Carol Wolfe and 32 members present and $67 donation to the church.

Pat fat quarter of the month: winners are Joann and Katie (2)

Doris with raffle: Start quilt made by Doris and quilted by Linda Smith. Drawing winner is Beverly Tolbert. Military quilt details given, and drawing will be at Cracker Christmas.

Katie Block of the Month: This month is a disappearing four patch that is Christmas themed and there are 40 kits passed out. I am still missing 9 sailboat quilt blocks that need to be turned in.

Dori Sunshine: Dori has sent out 38 birthday cards and 16 get well cards, estimated that we will send out approximately 100 cards per year.

Joyce: Eileen's arthritis has become too bad for her to continue to sew. Please continue to stay in touch with her. Rita Lundy has undergone surgery.

Jeanette Eye Spy committee: 8 outstanding quilts being worked on. These donations are for the Head Start program at Coquina Elementary School for the 3 year old class. There are 18 kids in this class. Ilene passed out 3 more Eye Spy quilt kits to be sewn together.

Tips from Jeannette: use a rubber band to keep spool and bobbin together. Use painters' tape for quilting, it does not leave residue on quilts and is great for threads.

Joyce: Bylaws vote, SherriAnne motion and Jo 2nd, all in favor to pass updates to bylaws. Thank you to Juanita for all her work on updating the bylaws for the quilt guild.

Cecilia: Heartwarming story shared about a baby quilt purchased by a friend for granddaughter Kennedy Rose.

Laura: Pat Reid Quilt Contest is coming up.

Jo Show and Tell: Class Karen and Janet. Janet, Karen, SherriAnne, Caroline, Jeannette, Gay, Mona, Doris, and Jo
