Venerable Servant of God Father Michael J McGivney Beatification Mass - October 31, 2020

Fr. Michael Joseph McGivney was born in Waterbury, Connecticut, on August 12, 1852. He was the first of thirteen children. His parents immigrated to the United States in the 19th-century from Ireland.

Life for Irish immigrants was not easy at that time. Immigrant families often faced prejudice, social exclusion, and financial and social disadvantages. The pandemic at that time was tuberculosis Fr. McGivney fell ill with tuberculosis and was stricken with severe pneumonia in January of 1890. His health deteriorated over the following months and he died on August 14, 1890 just two days past his 38th birthday.

Fr. McGivney was ordained by Archbishop James Gibbons on December 22, 1877, in Baltimore's historic Cathedral of the Assumption, the nation's first cathedral. Fr. McGivney was assigned to St. Mary's Church, New Haven, Connecticut.

Through all the trials and tribulations of his time and with his busy schedule serving the needs of his parish and community, Fr. McGivney saw a need for a fraternal organization to strengthen the faith and families of his fellow Catholics.

Fr. McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus in the basement of St. Mary's church on March 29, 1882. The Knights of Columbus has grown to over 1.8 million members. Over the past decade the Knights have made charitable donations of $1.5 billion dollars and have donated more than 700 million volunteer hours to charity. We actively support pro-life and have donated over 1,000 ultrasound machines throughout the US.

Fr. McGivney's cause for Sainthood opened on December 18, 1997 in Hartford, Connecticut. Pope Benedict XVI declared him a "Venerable Servant of God" on March 15, 2008. Pope Francis authorized a decree regarding the miracle attributed to the intercession of Fr. McGivney on May 27, 2020. The miracle deals with an ultrasound showing a baby with a severe case of fetal hydrops, a life-threatening condition of an abnormal buildup of fluids in the tissue around the lungs, heart or abdomen or under the skin. In addition, the baby had Down syndrome. The Schachle family prayed to Fr. McGivney for the cure of the hydrops issue. The baby's name is Michael (Mikey) McGivney Schachle - he is now five years old and was born with Down syndrome.

How fitting for this miracle to be the one for beatification. Ultrasound machine used to find the hydrops issue. The 1,000 machines donated by councils raising funds and our Supreme Council matching them.

There are several things that parallel the life of Fr. McGivney and that of Mikey's – worth mentioning is that Fr. McGivney was the first of thirteen children and Mikey is the thirteenth child for the Schachle's. For more information on the miracle go to YouTube and search for "The Schachle Story: Mikey's Miracle".

For more information on the life of Fr. McGivney please visit www.fathermcgivney.org and read the book "Parish Priest" by Douglas Brinkley and Julie M. Fenster. All are invited to join the Fr. Michael J. McGivney Guild. Membership in the Guild is open to anyone who wishes to share in this mission of making known the life and work of Fr. McGivney and of encouraging devotion to his memory. The Guild is anxious to receive reports of favors received through his intercession. Not only are miracles needed, but also witnesses to the power of the servant of God's prayers before the throne of God. Please visit guild@kofc.org and join.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words.

Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

Glory to God

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of goodwill. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Reading 1

IS 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

Responsorial Psalm

PS 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10

R. (7b) Give the Lord glory and honor.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

For great is the LORD and highly to be praised; awesome is he, beyond all gods.

For all the gods of the nations are things of nought, but the LORD made the heavens.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name! Bring gifts, and enter his courts.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Worship the LORD, in holy attire; tremble before him, all the earth; say among the nations: The LORD is king, he governs the peoples with equity.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

1 THES 1:1-5B

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Alleluia

PHIL 2:15D, 16A

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia

Gospel

MT 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off

and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech.

They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying,

"Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth.

And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion,

for you do not regard a person's status.

Tell us, then, what is your opinion:

Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?"

Knowing their malice, Jesus said,

"Why are you testing me, you hypocrites?

Show me the coin that pays the census tax."

Then they handed him the Roman coin.

He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?"

They replied, "Caesar's."

At that he said to them,

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance of the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son he is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Mystery of Faith:

1. We proclaim your Death, O Lord and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

or

2. When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

or

3. Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Agnus Dei

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communion Antiphon

The Son of Man has come to give his life as a ransom for many.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou

O Prince of the Heavenly Host by the power of God cast into hell, satan and the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruins of souls. Amen
