

The Artful Classroom

Reward Tickets

PDF Version

Sending positive messages home is a powerful tool for teacher-parent communications. Use these handy little rewards for daily positive communication with students and their parents.

Preparation:

Print off a bunch of each page, trim them, and keep them handy. You can give them out during the day (catch 'em being good!), or make a set after school (upon reflection of the day) and hand them out first thing in the morning. Of course, you can also do both!

Suggestions for Use:

- Use the tickets solely for communication with students and parents.
- Have children collect the tickets for a later reward or treat.
- Post the rewards on your classroom door or hallway bulletin board to showcase your kids' greatness.
- Use the rewards as a "Free homework assignment" ticket.
- Have the class work together to collect a certain number of tickets to earn additional PE, free time, or a special event.
- Keep a chart to show the number of each ticket earned by the class (included on page 4).
