

102

William Charles Holliman

Graveside services for William Charles Holliman, 77, of Oil City, were held Monday, September 5, 1988, at 10 a.m. at the Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Oil City. The Rev. Frank Carroll, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Oil City, officiated.

Mr. Holliman died Saturday, September 3, 1988, after a lengthy illness. Born April 28, 1911 in Sturgis, Miss., he had lived in Oil City all of his life. He was a retired pipefitter.

He is survived by his wife, Martha Ellen Holliman of Oil City; four sons, Charles Ray Holliman of Vivian, Joseph E., Thomas D., Carroll L. and E.F. Holliman of Vivian; one daughter, Glenda Mae Davis of Oil City; one nephew, Earl Holliman of Hollywood, Calif.; 18 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Wayne Morris, Don Elmore, Pat Allen, Alton Allen, Dub Allen and Hugh Don Coghlin.