A Note from Rick: Mixed markets at TLA this week. Bull calves were stronger on Tuesday along with slaughter cows. We had a couple good groups of mixed steers and heifers that sold from $1.28-$1.32. The September Special Springer Sale on Thursday was a little softer than the August sale. Heifers were approximately $100 less across the board in comparison. The market made significant gains in July and August at TLA and we were not able to sustain that in September. On Saturday, we held the first annual Northern Indiana Yearling Speed Sale. The sale was definitely a success. We had several of the top owners and trainers from across the country buying horses and the market was very strong. We're looking forward to this sale growing in the future. We are hosting The Morgan Classic here on the 17th and 18th and hope to see you all at TLA!
