1st dance - Crush by Dave Matthews Band (ted) We particularly like the chorus and we don't feel the need to dance for a very long time since neither of us are that good or enjoy too much spotlight, so I'll give you a little license to condense the verse, particularly the instrumental bridge that DMB likes to extend.

*** Jim Note – Suggest we do short intro, verse, chorus, verse, double chorus out.

We are still deciding on Father/Daughter, Mother/Son, and a combined in-laws (father in law/daughter, mother in law/son) dance songs but we're confident that one of the songs on your list will be good fits for all. I'll also try to get you a list of a few "must plays" from your list in the coming weeks that you can make sure to throw into your set list.

10/8/16 Wedding (girl, Dave)

1st Dance – My husband and I would like to be announced and then dance to Etta James "at last" also from your song list.

Father/Daughter – I loved her 1st

That day is my nephew Brodie Kirkpatrick's 11th year Birthday which we would like to recognize. Can you announce that there is someone special in the room who was nice enough to share his birthday day with us and then play Beatles "you say it's your birthday" as we bring a birthday cake out to him?

We are having a formal seated dinner either inside the clubhouse or under a tent on lawn by the water all dependent on the weather and temperature of course. Band would be set up on stage either inside or out. Dress is not black tie for guests or groom but is blazer and tie for men with women in cocktail/long and short dresses so tuxedos are fine but feel free to wear suit and tie too and fun cocktail dress for lead female vocalist.

so Blues, oldies, disco, jazz, Motown, classic rock, a few newer songs on your list and FUN music that gets guests to dance!! Guests range from late 20s to few in 70s ( parents and their friends) but most will be 40-50s and are a very low key, fun party bunch! My dad still thinks he can get all the way down to the floor for "shout!"...enough said. 😊.

Since this is just a wedding reception we wanted to start slow and ramp it up as the evening progresses.

Cocktail Hour: 6.30-7.30pm we would love classic jazz tunes. Very flexible here. Sinatra, Etta James, etc. I can select specific ones from your list we would like included.

Buffet Dinner and Desert/coffee : 7:00-8:30 or so.

We are letting people eat very informally if and when they want at unassigned tables. No wedding cake just several dessert trays. Maybe here we transition into some more fun but still lower key songs. I will get you a list of ones we like from your playlist.

We want to end the night with lots of varied but fun dance songs, really get people on their feet with disco, classic rock, eighties, soul etc. again I will get you the songs we like from your playlist tomorrow to give you an idea of what we are thinking.
