We, the Catholics of St. Anthony of Padua Parish of Grand Rivers are united as a faith-filled community to give honor and glory to God, to aid each other, and others, on the journey of salvation and to share the Good News of the Gospel.

December 6, 2015
Second Sunday of Advent
Luke 3:1-6

“... and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.”

There are two birthdays that most people, particularly Christians, probably never forget. Jesus' and their own. They get presents on both birthdays. But John the Baptist did not go through the harsh land on the east side of the Jordan River, “crying out in the desert” calling people to put up lights on their house, decorate a tree with too many ornaments and buy presents for people who may not even appreciate or use them. In fact, in the time of Jesus and John there would have been one or two lights from oil lamps inside a typical house at night, and no lights outside. On the rare occasion when presents were given or exchanged, they would have been made or cooked by the giver. John did not even tell people to buy a gift for Jesus. John was challenging the people of his day, and us, to get ready for the message of Jesus and to prepare to imitate him. John was saying that Jesus would be our light and would bring us the gift of eternal life. All Jesus wants from us in return is to accept His gifts and appreciate them.
