Quotes:

"Not only is she one of the most hard-working, dedicated, loyal, and wisest people I have ever met, she is a driven woman who is passionate about helping others. The positive energy, work ethic, and intelligence she brings to any organization is invaluable." Kelly Elmore - Military Spouse

"I hope to continue to champion the health and wellness of service members, veterans and their families through my professional endeavors. As a military spouse and mom of three, your generosity will ease the financial burden of higher education on my family, which will enable a healthier school-family life balance and a greater ability to focus on course work. Thank you, again, wholeheartedly for this thoughtful and generous gift." Kristin
