An Island of Learning... A Sea of Faith

Newsletter: May 31, 2017

Dear Parents & Guardians,

It's hard to believe that our school year is nearly over! Yesterday, we had a special "Clap Out" farewell to our 8th graders on their last day at OLSS. There was a lot of laughter, but there were also tears. We are sad to say good-bye to them, but look forward to hearing of their successes in high school and beyond!
