The President shall, with the confirmation of the Executive Board, appoint an active member, possessing qualifications for the office of the Third Vice President, to fill the vacancy, if the remainder of the term is less than one (1) year. A majority vote by the Executive Board shall determine the result. If the remainder of the term of office is greater than one (1) year, a special election shall be held by the Executive Board within twenty (20) days, of the vacancy date, to fill the position. The letter of intent shall be sent from the person who last served as Chairperson of the Nominating Committee to each person who wishes to be a candidate for the office of third vice president. All voting shall be by secret ballot (electronic or paper). Any person appointed and/or elected to fill an unexpired term of President shall subsequently be eligible to be elected to four (4) full two (2) year terms in accordance with this constitution and by-laws.

Section 7. Vacancy of Elected Officer other than President and/or Vice Presidents. If a vacancy occurs in an elected officer's position, other than that of a President, due to death, resignation, disability or inability to serve, the President shall, with the confirmation of the Executive Board, appoint an active member, possessing qualifications for the office, to fill the vacancy if the remainder of the term is less than one (1) years. A majority vote by the Executive Board shall determine the result. If the remainder of the term of office is greater than one (1) year, a special election shall be held by the Executive Board within twenty (20) days, of the vacancy date, to fill this position. The Letter of Intent shall be sent from the person who last served as Chairperson of the Nominating Committee to each person who wishes to be a candidate for the vacant office. Nominating procedures, approved for last Florida Conference Lay election, will be used for the election. All voting shall be by secret ballot, electronic or paper. Any person appointed and/ or elected to fill an unexpired term of office shall subsequently be eligible to be elected to four (4) full two (2) year terms in accordance with this Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 8. Removal of Elected Officer. The Organizational and Officers Effectiveness Committee/shall give its findings annually. Any elected officer, not performing his/her duties, as outlined in this Constitution and By-Laws, shall be notified in writing by the President, of his/her failure to perform designated duties, with a copy forwarded to the Chair, Organizational and Officers Effectiveness Committee, and the Executive Board. If failure to perform his/her duties continues for a period of thirty (30) days after notification, the matter will be referred to the Executive Board for action. If the President is not performing his/her duties, as outlined in this Constitution and By-Laws, as deemed by a majority vote of the Executive Board, he/she shall be notified in writing by the Executive Board through the Corresponding Secretary of his/her failure to perform designated duties. The Executive Board, may, in the interim of the Florida

Conference Quarterly Meeting suspend the elected officer. The final decision to expel or reinstate from/to office shall rest exclusively with The Florida Conference Lay Organization in its Quarter Meeting or the Annual Convention. This organization and each of its Divisions shall at all times be governed by the Constitution and By-Laws of Connectional Lay Organization of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, The Eleventh Episcopal District Lay Organization of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, The Current Book of Discipline, Laws, Doctrines, and Tenets of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised edition.

ARTICLE XIV – Committees

To ensure successful and effective implementation of programs and projects of The Florida Conference Lay Organization, other than specified duties of elected officers per Constitution and By-Laws, all Chairpersons shall be appointed by the President.

SECTION 1 Four (4) types of Committees shall exist in the Florida Conference Lay organization: Standing, Special, Convention and Ah Hoc Committees.

SECTION 2 Standing Committees are appointed to implement specific goals, objectives, and programs that advance of, and are vital to the functioning of the Florida Conference Lay Organization. Each standing committee shall have not fewer than four (4) nor more than eight (8) members appointed by the President and approved by the Executive Board. The President in appointing committee members shall follow these guidelines: a) there shall be at least one person appointed from each Annual Conference Lay Organization, and b) appointments shall be sensitive to age diversity, at least one (1) person between the ages of 18-35, c) all persons must have demonstrated diversity of experiences in the work assigned to the committee’s duties and reporting timeline. The Standing Committees of the Florida Conference Lay Organization shall be as follows: Budget and Stewardship, Constitution and By Laws, Organizational and Officers Effectiveness, Scholarship and Awards, Legislation, AMEV-Alert and other committees deemed as necessary to function by the President and Executive Board.

SECTION 3 Special Committees shall be the following: Nominating, Elections, Auditing and other such committees that are appointed to perform a task that does not fall within the assigned function of a Standing Committee.

SECTION 4 Convention Committees of the Florida Conference Lay Organization shall be assigned under the following Commissions: Statistics and Finance, Organization and Structure, Personnel and Procedure, and Program and Activities. The duties and responsibilities of the Commissions shall be included in the Convention guide.

SECTION 5 The Credential Committee prepares and presents to the Florida Conference Lay Convention a certified list of registered officers and delegates that make up the voting strength of the convention.

SECTION 6 The Rules Committee provides official guidelines of operating procedures specially required for operation of the convening Annual Convention.

SECTION 7 The Budget and Stewardship Committee of the Florida Conference Lay Organization shall submit its final report to the regular session of the organization at the last business session of the Annual Convention.

SECTION 8 The Budget and Stewardship Committee is composed of the treasurer, financial secretary, and other members for a total of no more than six (6), these members shall be appointed by the President. It shall be the duty of this committee to prepare a two (2) year budget, for approval and the 1 ½ day Annual Convention for adoption by a majority vote.

SECTION 9 The Constitution and By Laws Committee defines the primary characteristics of the organization, prescribes how the organization functions including all rules that the organization considers so important that they cannot be changed without previous notice to the membership and a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the 1 ½ day Annual Convention.

Section 10 The Organizational and Officers Effectiveness Committee shall report annually to the Executive Board. The committee will propose and present for the Executive Board the process and tools for the officer's evaluation and implement the process. The President has thirty (30) days after the close of the Annual Convention to appoint the Committee Members who will present their findings.

SECTION 11 Ad Hoc Committee is appointed as the need arises to carry out a specific task. It automatically ceases to exist on presentation of its final report to the body.

THE LAY HYMN

Laymen now have thus assembled, In Thy blessed name O God. Guide us in our true endeavor light the pathway that we trod; Give us strength to ever labor for Thy cause Give us strength to ever labor for Thy cause.

We are banded one in union, To fulfill Thy just command. May we be Thy true disciples, Holding to Thy mighty hand; Give us blessings from the fountain of Thy love Give us blessings from the fountain of Thy love.

As we walk this Christian journey, Let us keep our armor bright. Let our works be pure and holy That we stand within Thy sight; Laymen soldiers, strong in unity and love laymen soldiers, strong in unity and love.

May we stand before Thine altar, pledging Lord to work for Thee. In the vineyard, in the pastures Let us Lord Thy pilgrims be; Let us lift the cross forever to the skies, Let us lift the cross forever to the skies.

Written by Frances A. Walston

Tune: (Zion) "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah"

THE LAY BENEDICTION

"May God bless us with the true spirit of Christianity. That we may live together, not as man over man, but as lay persons working with God. Amen"
