

Lindsey is a native of West Bend, WI where she has been involved in theatre since 2011. She made her directorial debut in 2017 leading a cast of 99 middle school students in The American Revolution in 45 Minutes or Less. She also directed Children of Eden at Holy Angels and has worked as assistant director for the Parks and Rec's Summer Youth Theatre program for the past five years. Lindsey has also been seen on stage in many local productions. Some of her favorite credits include Mrs. Potts (Beauty and the Beast), Hodel (Fiddler on the Roof), and Marian Paroo (The Music Man). In addition to her directing and acting experience, Lindsey has assisted backstage on several productions. Lindsey previously worked in film and television production; credits include Assistant Production Coordinator on "Feed the Fish" and "No Names." Lindsey currently works as the Communications and Parish Life Director and Co-Director of Music Ministry at Holy Angels Catholic Church. She is excited to join the long and proud legacy of the West Bend Children's Theatre.
