Deborah has been professionally involved in the interior decorating and custom window treatment business since 1992. In 2005, Deborah was selected to be the featured designer in an episode of HGTV's "Designers' Challenge" (Episode DSC-7570-Tuscan Kitchen). She is the only interior decorator in New Mexico featured on HGTV.com's "Designers'Portfolio".

In addition to her work as a professional interior decorator, Deborah was a Senior Design Consultant with Willow House for 12 years, helping women create beautiful homes using Simply Good Design. Currently Deborah is associated with A Makers' 5 studio, helping people create a beautiful life by inspiring and teaching people how to create pretty things for their homes.
