Oakland County eFiling Update

Oakland County Circuit Court now requires Case Evaluation Summaries to be submitted electronically via the MiFile e-service option. Case Evaluation Notices now inform you of the need to electronically serve the summaries upon, and provide emails for, the three evaluators and the ADR Clerk. Please see the attached step-by-step instructions to help you through the process.

https://content.govdelivery.com/attachments/MIOAKL/2019/12/06/file_attachments/1338546/eFiling%20CE%20Summaries%20instructions.pdf

Worth noting:

- MiFile file size limitations apply
- Please select Misc. Document as the Filing Type
- Evaluators and ADR Clerk need to be added on an ad hoc basis for the filing of the summaries, per the instructions. Do not add them to the case as a whole, or they will receive all served documents.

All you need to do is download the App (for I-phone or Android), select “NALS of Michigan” as the beneficiary, purchase a gift card and a portion of the proceeds goes to NALS of Michigan. You don’t need to purchase gift cards just to give as gifts – you can purchase a gift card for yourself prior to going shopping or out to dinner. You’ll be spending that same amount of money anyway, so why not help our organization at the same time. A few examples of participating retailers are Applebees, Bath & Body Works, Bed Bath & Beyond, Best Buy, Burger King, K-Mart, Lowes, Old Navy, Panera, Petco, Starbucks, Target, Staples, Walmart, Home Depot, Whole Foods, and Zappos.

If you are not sure how to use this mobile App, go to the NALS of Michigan Facebook page and watch the video.

So, you want to be a legal professional? Maybe you are just starting out in the industry? Maybe you need a refresher? College legal studies programs are great at teaching substantive topics, but everyone needs the basics of working in the legal field. The topics of this seminar series are geared toward new legal professionals to help them work more efficiently and professionally in just about any law office environment.

TOPICS

“Written Communications: Write Better Letters, Memos, and Emails”: Written communication is not just about texting these days. Law firms still create formal letters and memos, and even emails need to be drafted to look professional instead of as an instant message. This session will discuss proper formatting of these types of documents as well as assist with better word usage and common grammatical challenges.

“E-filing in Michigan and Michigan’s Federal Courts”: Litigation basics are essential for any beginning legal professional. You may not currently work in litigation, but chances are you will come across it at some point, whether you work for a small law firm in which litigation is one of several practice areas, or you have to cover for a coworker or work a temp assignment in it. E-filing is of utmost importance. All federal courts use e-filing, and many Michigan courts do as well. This session will cover basics of e-filing in federal and state courts in Michigan so you can maneuver the systems with ease.

“Oral Communication: Let Them Know You Know What You’re Talking About”: You may think you were born a great conversationalist, but speaking professionally takes practice . . . and lots of it. This session will concentrate on phone etiquette and some face-to-face conversational skills that you can use for practice.

“Online Resources for the Legal Professional”: It is an electronic world out there. As a legal professional, you will need to find a lot of information, and you will need to find it quickly and efficiently. This means everything from research sites to finding a process server. This session will provide you with some online resources almost all legal professionals should be using today.

“Tips and Tricks of a Savvy Legal Assistant”: This session will be led by a panel of currently-employed legal professionals who have “been there, done that.” They will talk about what a typical day may look like and what they do to help them stay organized and be able to work as efficiently as possible with varying individuals.

Schönen tag!

NALS of Michigan is excited to announce its 59th Annual Meeting and Education Conference to be held April 17-18, 2020, at the Bavarian Inn in Frankenmuth, Michigan!

NALS is the association for legal professionals. NALS is a national association made up of many state and local chapters, and NALS of Michigan is one of the largest state chapters. We provide professional development to those working as paralegals, legal secretaries, attorneys, county clerks, etc., by offering continuing legal education, leadership training and opportunities, and nationally-recognized certifications. Our goal is to engage individuals in our association, inspire them to become top-notch professionals, enhance their skills, and promote them to the legal community. At our conference in Frankenmuth, NALS of Michigan will be holding an entire day of continued legal education and training, followed by a day of leadership development and an awards banquet.

Enclosed are opportunities to not only assist NALS of Michigan with its goals, but to promote your business as well. There are forms to advertise in our conference program (and possibilities to be on our website), sponsor our conference (again, with opportunities to advertise in our conference program and on our website), and donate to "swag bags" for conference attendees. Also enclosed is a registration form for the conference. We encourage you and your staff to attend our conference and experience the benefits of NALS.

Thank you very much for your consideration in assisting with our conference. Our association cannot function without the support of law firms and businesses such as yours.

Sincerely,

Teresa Garber, PP, CLP
