Sacred Vestments and Liturgical Vesture (Part One)

The diversity of offices in the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy, above all of Holy Mass, is shown outwardly by the diversity of sacred vestments, conscientiously worn according to the prescriptions of the liturgical books, as a sign of the office proper to each. In the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon, the vestments are to respect traditional forms and no lay person is to wear any vesture during liturgical celebrations that could mislead the faithful as to their office in the Church.

The norms governing in general the dignity and artistic worth of sacred objects, and their appropriateness for sacred use are to be applied also to sacred vestments and liturgical vesture.

Sacred vestments should contribute to the beauty of the sacred action itself, for to put on a sacred vestment to accomplish a sacred act signifies leaving the usual dimensions of daily life to enter the presence of God in the celebration of the divine mysteries.

It is appropriate that the vestments worn by priests and deacons, as well as the liturgical vesture worn by lay ministers, be blessed according to the rite in the Book of Blessings before they are put to use.
