About Interstate Bait

Let's put it this way: These aren't your grandpa's sunflower seeds. Forget about those flavorless, chemical-flavored seeds you're used to. Here at Interstate Bait, we make the absolute highest quality, tastiest sunflower seeds you've ever experienced.

Ours are hand-crafted with care – in small batches. They are roasted and seasoned with the same attention and focus that you'd use to make a prized family recipe in your own kitchen – adding real, honest seasonings to coax out complex flavors you didn't even know were possible.

So yeah. They're sunflower seeds. But they're like no sunflower seeds you've ever tasted.
