

Deming Thomas L.

Thomas Lee "Tom" Deming, 43, of Bay Port, passed away Tuesday, January 3, 2006, in Bad Axe. He was born at Scheurer Hospital in Pigeon on August 6, 1962, the son of Frank H. and Wilma (Squires) Deming and graduated from the Huron Learning Center. Tom worked at Thumb Industries and was a member of the 4-H Handicraftsmen. He enjoyed feeding the birds, fishing, and going to the races. He loved his brothers and enjoyed being with them and his parents. He liked everybody and taught everyone he met to stop, slow down, and enjoy life around them. He had the gift of turning everything he touched into gold. Tom was a member of the Community of Christ Church in Bay Port. He is survived by his parents, Frank H. and Wilma Deming, of Bay Port; his brothers, Franklin Deming, Timothy Deming, Edwin Deming and his wife, Stacy, all of Bay Port, and Luke Deming and his wife, Kelly, of Bad Axe; his nieces and nephews, Travis, Christopher, Billy, Maggie, Anthony, Lily, and Chyna; his longtime caregivers and special friends, Duane and Mary Jurgens and Janet Leppek; and many other friends. He was preceded in death by a brother, Terry. A funeral service will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Thursday, January 5, 2006, at the Community of Christ Church in Bay Port, with Elder Ervin Haley, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in New Bay Port Cemetery. Visitation will be from 12:30 to 9 p.m. at Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon and from 10 a.m. until the time of the service on Thursday at the church. Memorials for Tom Deming may be given to the Community of Christ Church in Bay Port or Thumb Industries.
