

GIV- 20th Century Ireland

- Ireland was controlled by the British for centuries
- Movements for independence began in the 1800's
- Ireland became free in the early 1920's
- Catholics and Protestants have had struggles since Ireland became independent
- They still exist

Sample Questions

1. In the 1990s, the troubled relations between Catholics and Protestants in Northern Ireland helped illustrate the

- (1) difficulties of resolving ethnic and religious conflicts
- (2) inequalities created by expanding free markets and global trade
- (3) conflict created by the collapse of the Warsaw Pact
- (4) results of the failure of dictatorial governments

2. Since the late 1940s, Northern Ireland, India, and Israel have all faced which common problem?

- (1) the need to adjust to a post-communist political system
- (2) continued violent confrontations between different religious groups
- (3) economic depression that resulted from rapid industrialization
- (4) overpopulation of urban centers