4.17.24

Best Wishes!

I hope everyone received the email late yesterday afternoon regarding the change of date for the "A Taste of St. Rose" fundraiser put on by our teachers and staff. We wanted to make sure that this event would be a success and moving out a few weeks felt like the right move. The new date is May 31st, 2024, and we are celebrating the end of the school year and the hard work and dedication of not only our teachers, but staff as well. The teachers are looking forward to showcasing their talents and enjoying an evening with parents, alumni, and community members. All funds from the event will go towards the additional necessities for their classrooms, i.e. our electives program, or added pieces to make their curriculum truly come alive for all students.

Please purchase your $60 ticket from the St. Rose-McCarthy school office. The ticket purchase includes heavy appetizers, unlimited drinks, and a fun-filled evening kicking off the beginning of summer.

"Each fairy breath of summer, as it blows with loveliness, inspires the blushing rose."

Secondly, registration has been open for all new and returning students and we have had a good response thus far for new students and our preschool too! Please continue to spread the good word about SRM and its faith-based academic programs! We should be hearing back from the Diocese in regards to the OF, OF, OF Grant & Aid so that we can open up our Private Donor applications soon.

Lastly, as our third-grade class edges closer to their First Reconciliation & Holy Communion, I want them to know how excited I am to participate in this special moment of their faith journey! Being able to witness their welcoming of God's presence and grace through this 3rd of 7 sacraments is inspiring and heartwarming! May God bless them all!

Blessings,
Mrs. Hodges
