CONGRATULATIONS! 2019 PARK NATIONAL BANK FREEDOM YEARS DIFFERENCE MAKERS

Clair and Julie Schell were recognized for their passions in volunteering for the Newark Maennerchor, Newark Catholic High School, Knights of Columbus, TWIG 9 and the Newark Elk’s Club. They have been instrumental in the fundraising efforts for all of these organizations by volunteering their time and talents through fundraising, serving food, maintenance, mowing, landscaping and even clearing trees. Clair and Julie are great role models in our community as they still actively participate, fundraise, volunteer & encourage & recruit the next generation of volunteers! As part of the award, Park National Bank donated $500 to the Newark Catholic INSPIRE Program. Thank you Clair & Julie for everything you do in our community! Pictured: Matt Miller-Park President, Julie Schell, Clair Schell & Laura Lewis- Park Senior Vice President (article & photo used with permission of Park National Bank) Thanks Bill Snider for the “heads up”!

SINGERS by John Kneller

In less than two weeks, February 3, the Newark Maennerchor singers, Directed by Tom Starky, will return to our weekly rehearsals. This is a good time for new voices to join us. We rehearse every Monday night at 7:30 “down at the Maennerchor.” We can all learn together the new songs that we’ll perform at the Central Ohio District Saengerfest on June 6 & 7 in Columbus. Don’t speak German nor read music? You’re good. You’ll pick it up. And, if you’ve never before been to a Saengerfest, you’re in for a treat! Incidentally, we owe a debt of gratitude to Rogers Shay for finding our Saengerfest songbooks behind one of the Maennerchor gate posts where a delivery person left them. Were it not for Rog and global warming those songbooks might still be buried in a four foot snow bank!
