

NOVEMBER 6, 1954

An executive meeting of Kells-Grennie Post American Legion, Department of New York was held on November 6 at the home of Commander Tietjen, 77 Oceanview Place, Staten Island 8, New York.

ATTENDANCE

7 Six officers were in attendance: Co., Tietjen, Treasurer Torgerson, Past-Commanders Balbach and Rooney, Adjutant Meachem, Mathew Kunzig.

MEMBERSHIP

The meeting was turned over to Membership Chairman Balbach.

Applications for membership were presented by the following: Francis X. Markey, Jacob Mary, Gregory J. Faljean, Henry J. Niedbalski, Frank A. Luongo, William J. Knorr, Robert S. Stumph, John W. Wall, Thomas F. Walstt, John E. Sieg.

It was moved and passed to lect the above into membership.

Of the past members not paid up for 1955 it seemed certain, after contact by Chairman Balbach, that 49 would pay. This list is attached.

It was moved by P.C. Rooney to pay the per capita tax on this 49 and their names be sent immediately. This would bring the membership to 285, assuring Kells-Grennie of National meritorious membership citation and banner. Also it would put us in good standing for county award, which works on percentage basis, and also put us in running for 40&8 award.

A letter is to be sent with the membership cards stating that tax was paid and asking for payment of dues.

A separate account is to be nade up by treasurer for this action.

Membership cards were filled in by Membership Chairman Balbach and Com. Tietjen.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

It was voted to send the usual contribution to the Staten Island Tuberculosis & Health Committee.

Meeting was adjourned on motion by P.C. Rooney at 12:00 midnight.

These minutes are submitted subject to correction for errors and omissions.
