AMANA NEWS AND NOTES

Hey, Did You Know? Who Pays the Bills?

Did you know the Middle Amana Park is not a public park? It receives no tax support whatsoever, and indeed, Iowa County property taxes are assessed to it and paid for by the Amana Society, Inc.

The Amana Colonies are not incorporated as a city. Furthermore, Iowa County does not provide funding or maintenance support for any recreational activity, recreational organization or area in the Amana Colonies.

A Facebook post regarding the park prompted a bit of discussion and the question was asked? Who pays to mow the Middle Amana Park? The answer: the shareholders of the Amana Society. And there's more.

Hey, did you know?

The Middle Amana Park, the Lily Lake picnic area and the Amana Colonies Nature Trail (Homestead) are owned and provided for by the Amana Society, Inc. The Amana Kolonieweg Recreational Trail (Middle and Amana) is maintained by Amana Colonies Trails, Inc, which has an easement from the Amana Society. Amana Colonies Trails raises funds to maintain the Kolonieweg.

The Amana Indoor Swimming Pool and the tennis courts at the Amana Elementary School are funded and maintained by the Clear Creek Amana School District.

The Amana Youth Sports Association pays for and provides the soccer equipment and they pay for league play and fees relating to play. They set up goals and chalk before games. Likewise the Sandlot group does the same for peewee baseball play.

The Amana Community Chest makes annual donations to the Amana Youth Sports league and has helped to support Amana Colonies Trails, Inc., the CCA swimming pool fund, the Sandlot Peewee ball teams and other such groups/ causes in the Amana Colonies dedicated to sport and recreation.

You might be asking: So who pays to pick up trash at the Middle Amana Park after the 4th of July picnic? Answer: the shareholders of the Amana Society. They also pay almost $600 in property taxes to Iowa County, as well as footing the bill for all mowing, restroom cleaning, restroom supplies, lighting, gravel for the drives, repairs and upkeep. Same goes with the Lily Lake picnic area and the Homestead Nature Trail.

In turn the Amana Society, via the Amana Colonies RV Park and Event Center which oversees the Middle Park, charges out of town groups and organizations a user fee for events at the Middle Amana Park. Local youth groups, the Amana Community 4th of July group and the Amana Church are charged nothing to use the park.

Fees charged for events like the Renaissance Festival, the Allis-Chalmers tractor reunion and the BMW motorcycle gathering, help defray expenses, but they do not cover all expenses, explained Laura Sue Woods of the AC RV Park and Event Center, "But they sure help!"

"This (providing the park) is something the Amana Society does to support the community and enhance the quality of life here," said Bruce Trumpold, Amana Society, Inc. "We feel it's very important for our community to be supportive."

But what is sometimes hard to bear is those who complain, but don't realize the facts.

One colony resident who preferred not to be named in this article, said outright, "I think when they say that the ruts haven't been fixed after the renaissance fair or that we need playground equipment, they think that there is a parks department that does this. This all costs money and there is only a hand full of people paying those costs and doing the work."

"What they don't get, is that they aren't contributing a penny yet they get to walk their dog there every day or take their kids to play soccer there. If someone wants to raise money for new picnic tables at the Lily Lake- that would be wonderful! If someone wants to raise money for new playground equip-

How can you help? Make a donation to the Amana Community Chest in support of recreation by mailing donations to ACC care of John Zuber, PO Box 161, Amana, IA 52203. Donate to the Amana Colonies Trails, Inc by mailing to PO Box 42, Amana, IA, 52203.

Drop off a donation for the park, Lily Lake picnic area or Homestead Nature Trail to the Amana Colonies RV Park, earmarked for these places.

Want to contribute your time? Contact Laura Sue at the RV Park And Event Center for ideas. But here are a few ideas: volunteers might trim shrubs at the Lily Lake, raise money for new picnic tables or to repair and paint the pavilion there. Volunteers could work together to create more seating at the Middle Amana Park, just as the Amana Boy Scouts did a few years ago in the pavilion by creating the wooden benches. Adding a couple of park benches would be nice.

APPLES IN WINTER, RUNNING JUL. 18 – 28

Apples in Winter, Old Creamery Theatre's (OCTC) second Very Intimate Performance (VIP) Series show of the season, opens on Jul. 18 and runs through Jul. 28 on the OCTC Main Stage, with shows on Thursdays and Sundays at 2 p.m. and on Fridays and Saturdays at 7:30 p.m.

Apples in Winter, by Jennifer Fawcett, is a riveting one woman play about being a mother, being human, and how to make a really good apple pie.

Actress Marquetta Senters returns to the role of Miriam, which she originated at Riverside Theatre last year.

Twenty-two years ago, Miriam's son, Robert, committed a horrible crime. As is tradition, Robert is granted a last meal. His request: a slice of his mother's apple pie. Now, Miriam has arrived at the prison to bake it for him.

This show is a part of OCTC VIP Series, or "Very Intimate Performance Series". The audience has been moved onto the Old Creamery Stage and an ADA compliant accessibility ramp and seating platform has been built in order to bring audience members closer to the action and mimic a black-box theatre experience.

Tickets are $32.50 for adults and $20 for students. Apples in Winter is Rated R. Call the Box Office for tickets and information at 319-622-6262 or visit us online at www.oldcreamery.com. Old Creamery Theatre is located at 39 38th Ave, Amana, IA.
