spent a lot of time doing odd jobs for his family and friends, working on vehicles and caring for his yard. He was also an avid sports fan – cheering for his kids and following the MN sports scene. Most of all, Paul loved spending time with his family and friends. Together, they enjoyed boating, playing cards, throwing bean bags, attending sporting events and making each other laugh. Paul was happiest when he was with his five grandchildren. They loved their papa beyond measure and will miss him dearly.
