

Weizmann Day School is Pasadena's Best Kept Secret

Most people don't know much about Weizmann Day School and what it really has to offer. Like an experienced and credentialed staff, a developmental program with high academic standards as well as a Judaic curriculum. Small classes with lots of individual attention. A warm, nurturing environment that helps kids build a sense of self, and a supportive, enthusiastic community of teachers and parents.
But that's not all.

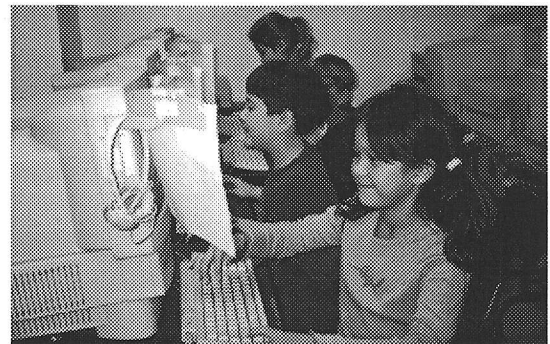

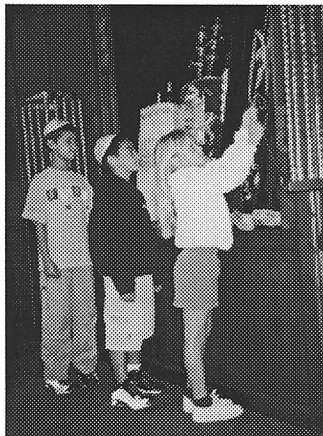

We are spreading the word that beginning in Fall 2001, Weizmann Day School is adding a middle school. Dr. Bruce Powell, the consultant instrumental in creating the Milken Community High School of Stephen Wise Temple, is providing guidance in the formation of the middle school.

Here's what some parents want you to know about Weizmann Day School:

"Weizmann Day School is providing our son not only with a first class education, but with a strong sense of his Jewishness, religious values and a joy for learning."
