

Rick Lee

Rick has developed into a great role model for the guys that he works with! Rick is always coming up with great, new activities to do with the people he works with! He has recently taken one of the men to their very first Iowa Hawkeye's football games. He has also taken them to the Cordova quarter mile races. Rick truly care about the men he provides services to, and goes above in beyond in trying to provide them with supports that enhances their quality of life! Rick truly wants the people he provides services to, to be as successful and independent as they can be and does an excellent job of getting the men to engage in goal work and achieving their goals! Rick is also a team player and will help cover shifts.
