

"JACK" Collis

80 Years old, of Caseville died Tuesday December 21, 1999

at Courtney Manor in Bad Axe, MI

He was born on October 31, 1919, at the home of his parents the late Percy and Mary (Liska) Collis in Caseville Township

At the age of five he moved to Vassar with his family.

After graduating from Vassar High School in 1938

he was inducted into the U.S. Army,

Serving in Europe and Africa during WWII.

In 1947 he returned to Caseville where he married

Helen "Hilda" Branda in the home he built and in which she still resides.

Jack was employed at Caseville Lumber Company from 1947 to 1972 when he became selfemployed as a residential finish carpenter.

He attended the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Bad Axe.

and he still enjoyed woodworking.

A Memorial service to be conducted by Richard Short

2:00 PM, Saturday January 8, 2000

at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville

Surviving are his wife Hilda of Caseville daughter

Saundra Charlton of Caseville

three sons

Gene Henderson and his wife Penny of Saginaw

Jon Collis and his wife Regina of Mud Creek

Rodney Collis and his wife Kimberlie of Grand Rapids

five grandchildren

Eric, Jill, Heather, Robert and Calvin

two great-granddaughters

Ashley and Victoria

one great-great-grandson

Austin

and four sisters

Flora Collis of Vassar

Evelyn Worvie and her husband Art of Davison

Annabelle Theide of Vassar

Phyllis Parent of Reese