DESCRIPTION: This is a vintage Ben Pearson Hickory Long Bow (kids bow). This is for either a right-hand or a left hand archer. However, the little plastic arrow rest is set for right-handed archers. You would need to add some type of rest to the left side to make it ambidextrous (or switch the little plastic rest to the other side). The grip is original, so it appears that this bow was never shot much at all. However, the hickory limbs are somewhat weathered and discolored ( see pics). The bow can be safely drawn to 26" (where it begins to stack). I suspect drawing it much further could break the limbs. So it is intended strictly for kids with a 24" draw length or less. Decal is a reproduction. If some kids wants a real longbow to play Robin Hood, this is a good choice.

Comes with a serviceable used string (sorry, I don't have any more new 54" strings)
