Some of our group moving slowing along.

This is evidently an office of some kind, but why are so many unframed paintings placed around the room? Did Elvis paint them or were they done by someone else?

Evidently Elvis liked protraits of himself. Note the large postal scale at the back.

Inside the museum.

Just some of the things spawned by the "Elvis Presley" industry.

Some of the Gold and Platinum Record Awards Elvis received.

A closer view of some of the awards.

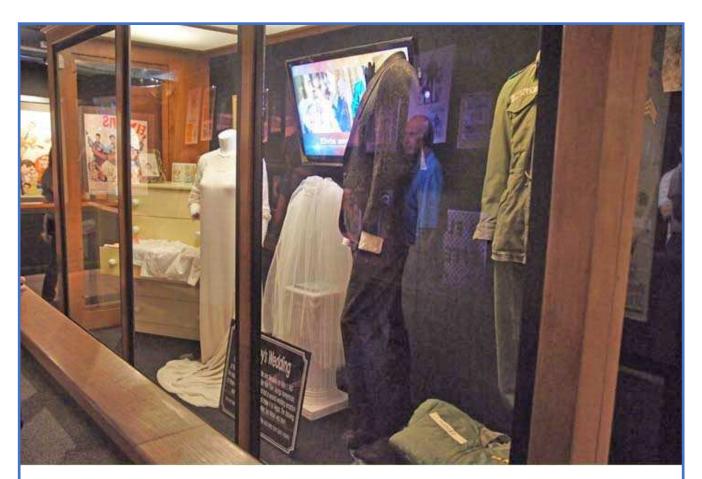

Elvis received this TV from RCA. The sign reads:

RCA TV

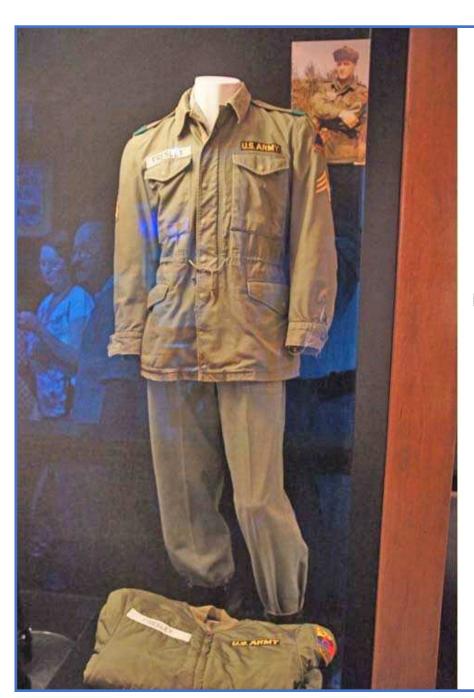

Gift from RCA to Elvis for the sale of 50 million records between the years 1956 and 1968.

Again, near the graves.

Evis's grave with lots of gifts.

The one on the left with the writing on it is from Japan.
